Code of Conduct

All volunteers and employees of the American Red Cross, in delivering Red Cross services and in all other Red Cross activities, shall meet the following standards of conduct:

No volunteer or employee shall:

- a. Authorize the use of or use for the benefit or advantage of any person, the name, emblem, endorsement, services, or property of the American Red Cross, except in conformance with American Red Cross policy.
- b. Accept or seek on behalf of any person, any financial advantage or gain of other than nominal value offered as a result of the volunteer's or employee's affiliation with the American Red Cross.
- c. Publicly use any American Red Cross affiliation in connection with the promotion of partisan politics, religious matters, or positions on any issue not in conformity with the official position of the American Red Cross.
- d. Disclose or use any confidential American Red Cross information that is available solely as a result of the volunteer's or employee's affiliation with the American Red Cross to any person not authorized to receive such information or use to the disadvantage of the American Red Cross any such confidential information, without the express authorization of the American Red Cross.
- e. Knowingly take any action or make any statement intended to influence the conduct of the American Red Cross in such a way as to confer any financial benefit on any person, corporation, or entity in which the individual has a significant interest or affiliation.
- f. Operate or act in any manner that is contrary to the best interests of the American Red Cross.
- g. Operate or act in a manner that creates a conflict with the interests of the American Red Cross and any organization in which the individual has a personal, business, or financial interest. The individual shall disclose such conflict of interest to the American Red Cross chair of the appropriate governing board, the appropriate Chief Executive Officer, or the General Counsel, as applicable, upon becoming aware of it. Where required, the individual shall absent himself or herself during deliberations, and shall refrain from participating in any decisions or voting in connection with the matter.

AMERICAN RED CROSS CODE OF CONDUCT
CERTIFICATION AND DISCLOSURE

I, _____ certify that I have read and understand the Code of Conduct of the American Red Cross and agree to comply with it, as well as applicable laws that impact the organization.

Disclosure of Current or Potential Conflicts:

I affirm that, except as listed below, I have no financial interest or affiliation with any organization that may have interests that conflict with, or appear to conflict with, the best interests of the American Red Cross:

Four horizontal lines for listing conflicts.

Should such conflicts or apparent conflicts of interest arise in connection with my Red Cross responsibilities, I agree to:

- a. Discuss the conflict with the chairman of my unit, the executive of my unit, my department head, or the General Counsel, as applicable, and
b. until management mitigates or otherwise resolves the conflict, refrain from participating in any discussions, deliberations, decisions or voting related to the conflict of interest.

Future Conflicts:

I also agree, during the term of my employment or volunteer status with the American Red Cross, to report promptly to the chairman of my unit, the executive of my unit, my department head, or the General Counsel, as applicable, any future situation that involves, or might appear to involve, me in any conflict between my outside interests and the best interests of the American Red Cross.
